ASIL 2024 ANNUAL MEETING

International Law in an Interdependent World

118th Annual Meeting | April 3-6, 2024 | Washington Hilton | Washington, DC

Every year, the ASIL Annual Meeting brings together prominent figures in international law and international relations in Washington, DC. Spanning over a century, this tradition offers a unique platform for industry leaders from law firms, academic institutions, publishers, corporations, government, and nonprofits to connect with their audiences and showcase their influence.

The 2024 Annual Meeting delves into profound inquiries surrounding the effectiveness, relevance, and capacity of international law to address the complexities of our changing world, encompassing issues such as trade conflicts, global pandemics, escalating climate change, and the Ukraine invasion. These challenges have prompted some to question the role and worth of international law in addressing contemporary crises.

NUMBER OF ATTENDEES: 1,000-1,400

The ASIL Annual Meeting emerges as a lucrative sponsorship opportunity, ensuring an extensive reach and invaluable impressions for advertisers. This premier event presents a unique chance for brands to connect with a diverse and influential audience from various sectors, making it an optimal platform to maximize exposure and engagement.
